Catholic Schools Week

CSW at St. Jude the Apostle School

The National Catholic Schools Week theme is "Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed." Here at St. Jude the Apostle School we have many wonderful activities planned for the week ahead.

As an entire school community, we will be celebrating CSW in the following ways:

Sunday— Open House for potential families.
12:30pm-2:30pm.

Diocesan Catholic Schools Week Mass is 2pm at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception. The Art Exhibit begins at the Empire State Plaza immediately following Mass and will be on display until 1/31. All are invited!

Monday— Mass at CCHS for K-6(dress uniform)

Tuesday— Class Color Day. Wear a top in your class assigned color with your PE sweatpants.

Pre-K Dunham - red
Pre-K Freyssonier - blue
K - orange
1 - yellow
2/3 - blue
4 - purple
5 - red
6 - black
staff - green

(Pre-K Myers and Ruso will be on a field trip and should wear their regular uniform)

Wednesday—Pajama Day (students may wear their pajamas to school).

Thursday— Game/Puzzle Day. Bring in your favorite board game or puzzle to share with friends. K-6 will gather in the gym at 1:30pm. Pre-K will play in their classrooms.

Friday—Sports/Jersey Day (wear your favorite team shirt, jersey or hat with your PE sweatpants)

Service Projects for CSW:

- PreK—Collecting "kid-friendly" lunch items for Mount Ida's Community Food Pantry.
- Kindergarten— Write letters to the Veterans at the VA Hospital
- 1st Grade—Making Police Officer Survival Bags
- 2nd/3rd—Collecting toys and making treats for the Humane Society
- 4th Grade—Preparing a meal for Joseph's House
- 5th— Valentine Cards for a Children's Hospital
- 6th grade— Making toys for the Humane Society

Special Activities and Field Trips:

On Tuesday or Thursday (depending on your child's class) the Pre-K students will be traveling to the Saratoga Children's museum.

2nd/3rd—On Wednesday they will have a movie/popcorn party and on Friday will be a Dance Party.

6th Grade—Play in the snow (weather permitting)

Be sure to tag any pictures you post on social media from CSW.....
