

Stations of the Cross

St. Jude the Apostle Church

During each Friday of Lent St. Jude the Apostle Church will be hosting an evening of Stations of the Cross. Please join us for this sacred time as we observe Jesus' journey to the Cross. Each observance will begin at 7:00PM in the church, the only exception is Good Friday which will begin at 3:00PM. For information please call: 283-1162

February 28th

St. Jude the Apostle Church Chancel

The Chancel Choir of St. Jude the Apostle Church will present Stations of the Cross with readings and reflections written by Pope Francis accompanied by music from Taize.

March 6th

Nurses Way of the Cross

Nurses from St. Jude the Apostle, St. Michael the Archangel and Sacred Heart Churches will present the Stations of the Cross from a nurse's prospective. The Stations are adapted from the book Prayer in Nursing, written by Mary Elizabeth O'Brien.

March 13th

We Adore Thee 'A Way of the Cross for Eucharistic Adoration'

Seminarians and Diaconate Candidates of St. Jude and St. Michael's Church will lead Stations of the Cross. We Adore Thee combines the Way of the Cross with Eucharistic Mediation.

March 20th

Mary's Way of the Cross

The Stations of the Cross as seen through the eyes of Mary. Mary, Mother of Jesus, made the first way of the cross. In this special presentation by women from All Saints Catholic Church, Angels To Each Other, we see through Mary's eyes what Jesus was going through on the way to Calvary.

March 27th

The Way of the Cross by St. Alphonsus Liguori

Fr. Zachariah Chichester will lead Stations written by St. Alphonsus Liguori, founder of the Redemptorist Order. St. Alphonsus focuses on the reality of sin and the reality of Jesus' redeeming act of love on the cross.

April 3rd

Teen Pathways: Living Stations

Teen Pathways uses a backlit screen to show live images of Jesus' journey to the Cross. The teens also incorporate readings and music provided by Project Praise.

April 10th

Good Friday

Fr. Anthony Ligato and Music Director Nicholas Ascoti will guide participants through the Stations with readings and the traditional music setting At the Cross Her Station Keeping.
